

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

1.9
Ex 892 F 6 W

Who's Who

AT THE NATIONAL
4-H CLUB CAMP

1936

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Extension Service

C. W. Warburton, Director

C. B. Smith, Assistant Director

W H O ' S    W H O

A T T H E

T E N T H

N A T I O N A L    4 - H    C L U B    C A M P

W A S H I N G T O N , D . C .

J U N E 18 T O 24 , 1936

D I R E C T O R Y    O F    C L U B    D E L E G A T E S

ALABAMA

Miss Louise Flarey, Monroe County, began club work 5 years ago when she enrolled in home improvement, foods, health, and clothing work. She has been a member of the county judging team in each of the projects which she has undertaken. In 1934 she won first in the county, and last year first in the State, in judging food preservation. She has participated in the dress-style revue, breadmaking and canning contests, and has given demonstrations in canning. Louise has won three trips to State short course. She has entered the health contest and kept a health chart. She has been junior leader, president, and song leader of her club, and president of the county council 2 years.

Mr. Charles L. Hill, Etowah County, started club work in 1927 with cotton, calf, pig, and corn work. He represented his club on the livestock judging team which won first place at the fair, and won second in showmanship. In 1929 his father died and he and his brother Harold, a 4-H club member also, because of their projects - Jersey calves, pigs, and chickens - helped the family materially. Charles has been an entrant in the county health contest. He has attended four club camps and has been assistant leader, local leader, and president of his club.

Mr. William Paulk, Montgomery County, has specialized in pigs, calves, and corn during the last 8 years. In 1932 he exhibited his ton litter at the State fair. He has been an entrant in the county health contest. William has always been careful about keeping records and accounts of expenses. He has developed leadership by obtaining and helping new members in the 4-H clubs. He is interested and active in community affairs, and has filled the offices of assistant local leader, local leader, secretary, reporter, and president of his club.

Miss Geraldine Resmondo, Baldwin County, chose gardening, foods, home-improvement, clothing, poultry, and leadership as her club projects. She has been much interested in her garden, from which she supplied her family with plenty of fresh vegetables, sold many early ones and canned the surplus. Last year she canned 250 quarts of vegetables from her garden and 55 quarts of peaches and figs. She has participated in judging home improvement, canning, clothing, and foods. Geraldine makes all her own clothes. She won a medal last year on breadmaking in the general achievement contest, has attended short course twice and also club camp. She has been junior leader, secretary, treasurer, reporter, and president of her club, as well as president of the county council.

ARKANSAS

Miss Martha Lyon, Bradley County, chose gardening, canning, clothing, poultry, and room improvement as her club projects. She has been successful in exhibiting her club work, and has been a member of the judging and demonstration teams. She has attended club camp, and has been secretary of the County Council, captain of her club 3 years, and also secretary and reporter.

Mr. Joe McCollum, Columbia County, has had 8 years' experience in cotton, pig, corn, and poultry work. In competition at local and State fairs he has a number of "wins" to his credit. He has been an entrant in the tricounty judging contest, and on two occasions has won first place. He has been awarded three trips to the State club camp and one trip to the National Club Congress. He is a member of the Junior Adult 4-H Club, and has been vice president and president of his club.

Mr. Albert Sheperd, Pulaski County, joined a 4-H club 9 years ago and has specialized in calf, pig, and poultry work. Later he added sweet-potatoes to his project. He has exhibited his work, been a member of the dairy and poultry-judging teams, and given demonstrations in dairy work, winning first in the county in 1930 and second in the State in 1933. He is a member of the Youth Administration Board for Arkansas. He was president of his club from 1929 to 1934.

Miss Omega White, Prairie County, selected room improvement, poultry, gardening, and canning, as her club enterprises 8 years ago. She has exhibited her work successfully and entered the clothing and canned-products judging contests winning second place. She has won first in the dress-style revue, represented her State at the National Club Congress, and been awarded three trips to the 4-H club camp. She has been president of her club 5 years and reporter 2 years.

---

CONNECTICUT

Miss Doris Backman, Hartford County, selected sewing as her club project in 1928 and has carried it throughout her membership. In the county and State style revue she won first place for her first dress. In her second year she completed 2 years' clothing work in 1 and received first place in the county and second in the State for an evening gown. Doris then added the home-nursing project, studying personal hygiene and diseases for 2 years and giving demonstrations in "Care of the medicine closet." She became interested in room improvement, and was able to put this knowledge into practice last year when a room for her sisters and herself was made out of an old attic, the gradual transformation of which she found quite delightful. She took a course in cooking at junior short course in 1929 and three successive senior conferences. In 1934 Doris was a delegate to Camp Vail and last year she was leader of a group of girls, and watched their work progress and reach "the heights" by winning prizes at the county fair. She is a member of the senior 4-H club and the 4-H Fair Association.

Mr. Alfred Clark, New London County, has specialized in sheep, poultry, and handicraft during the past 7 years. In his handicraft work he made many things which have been useful around the farm and home, also placing well at the fair. He has exhibited his sheep successfully in both county and State, winning first place many times. In the State shearing contest he won first in hand shearing and third in machine shearing. Alfred not only has won trips to junior short course, senior conferences, 4-H camps, but has represented his State at Camp Vail. He has been president of the 4-H Fair Association. In 1933 he was appointed superintendent of the sheep department of the county 4-H fair and also was given supervision of the swine department the following year. He has filled the offices of local leader, secretary, vice president, and president of his club.

Miss Janet Hall, New Haven County, chose canning, cooking, and gardening as her club work 8 years ago, adding sewing to her list last year. She has been a member of judging teams, and has exhibited her work successfully at State and county events and given demonstrations in canning. Janet was selected as a delegate to Camp Vail in 1934, and also has attended short courses and senior conferences. She is leader of a group of younger people, has helped to organize a new club, and also has been active in achievement-day programs. She has been assistant local leader and local leader of her club.

Mr. Joseph Ruwet, Litchfield County, has specialized in poultry during the past 9 years, he and his brother being in partnership the first 4 years. Each year he has trapped a pen of 50 pullets; this year he is trapping 150. Joseph has been successful in exhibiting poultry and eggs at county and State exhibits. He has judged poultry and has given demonstrations in "The candling and grading of eggs" at many poultry meetings throughout the State, winning first several times. As a result of his work he was chosen delegate to Camp Vail and while there won first in a poultry-judging contest and second in a dairy-judging contest. At present he is helping his father to operate a commercial poultry farm having about 2,000 laying hens. He has been president of his club 5 years and also has served as secretary and vice president.

CONNECTICUT (contd.)

DELAWARE

Miss Mildred Clemens, New Castle County, has been interested in canning-, dairying-, and clothing-club work since she joined a 4-H club 7 years ago. She has exhibited clothing and canning at both county and State events winning many awards. She exhibited successfully at the calf show 3 years in the county and State. She was a member of the cattle-judging team at the State fair for 3 years. She has won two trips to the State short course, and been vice president and president of her club.

Mr. William Dawson, Kent County, has specialized in poultry-, pig-, and potato-club work since becoming a member. He has exhibited his projects at the State and county shows and judged poultry at the State poultry show. He has represented his State at the National Club Congress, where his exhibit of sweetpotatoes won second prize. He has been awarded trips to the State short course and has been local leader, secretary, and reporter for his club.

Mr. William Hopkins, Sussex County, has had 7 years' experience in gardening-, corn-, and potato-club work. Each year for the last 6 years he has exhibited corn at the Delaware Crop-Improvement Association, winning first and sweepstakes several times. He has exhibited corn on the cob at the State shows and corn on the stalk at county fairs, and has been active in judging corn at county and State fairs. He has attended State short course and has been secretary and president of his club.

Miss Florence Messick, Kent County, has included canning, cooking, and clothing among her club enterprises during the last 7 years. She has exhibited successfully with a long list of "firsts" to her credit including one which she was awarded at the National Club Congress, where she represented her State. She has attended short course twice, and been reporter, recreational leader, and chairman of the luncheon and decorating committee for her club.

---

FLORIDA

Miss Beatrice Arnold, Dade County, has been active in gardening, canning, clothing, home improvement, poultry, foods, health, and nutrition since she became a 4-H club member 8 years ago. She has exhibited her club work, been a member of the canning- and clothing-judging teams, and has given demonstrations in flower arrangement, baking, canning, salads, and sewing. In the dress-style revue she has won first place at the county fair on a tailored dress. Last year she organized a girls' club of 11 members which she led, and this year she has another club. She has given talks on 4-H club work, won four trips to the State short course, is county representative to the State Junior Council, and has filled the offices of secretary, treasurer, vice president, president, exhibit chairman, and song leader.

Mr. Eugene Boyles, Suwannee County, has specialized in hogs during his 5 years' membership in the 4-H club, during the latter part of which he has added calf-club work. He has exhibited his stock many times with a long list of "firsts" as well as grand championship to his credit and has been awarded four trips to the State short course and a scholarship to the University of Florida. Eugene has been champion livestock producer of his State. When a member of the cattle-judging team at the Fat Stock Show in Jacksonville he won highest individual score in the State. He has been secretary, reporter, and president of his club twice.

Mr. Donaldson Curtis, St. Johns County, has had 5 years' club experience, starting with poultry, rabbits, citrus fruit, dairying, calves, and market gardening. At the county livestock show in 1935 he won first on his poultry exhibit. He has been the project leader of the poultry, dairy, and pig clubs. He has attended short course and club camp each year. Through his club work he won a scholarship to the university in 1935. He has been vice president of his club 2 years.

Miss Margaret Florence Taylor, Escambia County, has been doing canning, sewing, gardening, home improvement, cooking, and leadership work for the last 8 years. She has exhibited her club work and has entered the gardening, canning, clothing, and baking contests; and has given demonstrations in table setting and dish washing, winning first place in the county for both. Margaret makes practically all her own clothes, assists with recreational work in her community, has given talks on 4-H club work. In 1934 she was presented with a medal by the county clerk for the most outstanding work of the year. She has won five trips to the State short course and attended county camp 3 years. She has filled all the offices of her club, and has been president of the Junior County Council 2 years.

GEORGIA

Miss Edwena Langley, Grady County, undertook canning, clothing, and gardening as her club work 5 years ago. She made general gardening and clothing exhibits in 1934 and 1935. She was a member of the demonstration team that demonstrated flower arrangement and also dry cleaning. She has entered the district, county and State dress-style revue each year during the last 4 years. She has won first in the county and third in the State, and was awarded a trip to the State club camp and the State short course. She has been group leader, vice president, president, and clothing-club leader.

Mr. Ernest Pace, Dodge County, has specialized in corn, calf, pig, beef, and sow projects since joining the 4-H club. He has exhibited successfully, winning grand champion on his calf at the Southeastern Fair last year, has been a member of the livestock judging team at the State exposition and given demonstrations in "Build something" at the Southeastern Fair. He has been an entrant in the health contest at the State conference in Athens, attended short course, is treasurer of the State 4-H club organization and president of the County Council as well as president of his club.

Miss Cornelia Phillips, Treutlen County, since enrolling in club work 6 years ago has carried gardening, home improvement, clothing, health, and canning. She has made five canning and four clothing exhibits, entered the county and State dress-style revue, winning first in the county, and has given demonstrations in rugmaking and dress accessories. She has won trips to State camp and short course. Cornelia has been local leader, reporter, and president of her club.

Mr. Reyno Tyre, Wayne County, has had 7 years' experience in cotton-, pig-, and corn-club work. He has participated in six livestock judging contests and also has judged cotton and seeds, winning many honors. He has won trips to Tifton, Athens, Savannah, and Atlanta. He has filled club offices of secretary, reporter, vice president, and president.

---

ILLINOIS

Miss Phyllis A. Goodwin, Will County, has learned a good many useful things since joining a 4-H club 8 years ago. Her chief interests have been canning, room improvement, clothing, and a baby-beef project which she carried for 1 year. Phyllis' is a real 4-H family, both her mother and father being leaders and her two brothers and one sister, 4-H club members. She has exhibited her work in district, county, and State contests. Each year she has entered demonstration contests in meal planning and preparation, clothing, and room improvement and has taken an active part in judging contests, winning many awards. As a result of her work in the foods club, she has taken over almost complete charge of preparing meals for her family. Through her club activities she has won trips to the 4-H club camp and National 4-H Club Congress, and is now president of the 4-H Federation. She has held many offices in her club.

Miss Lucille Hiller, Jackson County, has specialized in clothing-club work during the past 5 years. She has participated in clothing-judging contests in the district and county, has given demonstrations in the making of a slip at a number of county and district leaders' meetings, and has exhibited dress and dress accessories at the State contest. Last year she organized and led a clothing club in her community which finished 100 percent. Among her leadership activities may be included serving as member and secretary of the county 4-H Federation, having charge of county recreational activities, training county judging and demonstration teams for district and State contests, giving talks on club work to various organizations, including the Rotary Club. She has been a delegate to the National Club Congress, has attended State camp 3 years, and has served as local leader, secretary, reporter, recreational leader, and president of her club.

Mr. Harold S. Morine, Jr., Putnam County, started 4-H club work 8 years ago with a Jersey heifer calf. The experiences of his first year encouraged him to specialize in dairying. Later he added corn, hogs, and sheep, but he continued dairying as his major project. Two of his calves were selected in making up the county exhibit for the State fair. Each year from 1930 to 1934 he entered the county and State dairy-livestock contests, ranking highest in 1934. He has given demonstrations in "Making home-made ice cream"; has been an entrant in the county health contests, winning first in 1934; was chosen delegate to the National Club Congress, and has attended the State Youth Conference, the National Dairy Show in St. Louis, State fairs, and State 4-H camps. As a result of his club work he has a herd of 19 grade and purebred Jerseys, 3 grade Shropshire ewes, to be used as a foundation for a flock of sheep, an acre of corn, and a bank account. Harold plans to have his cattle and sheep help to finance his college education. He has filled the office of assistant local leader, reporter, vice president, and is now assistant leader of his club.

ILLINOIS (contd.)

Mr. Charles Norton, Bureau County, has been interested in sheep, swine, poultry, beef calf, and potatoes during the past 7 years. He has exhibited swine, calf, and sheep successfully for the past several years at State and county events, with a long list of "firsts" to his credit. He also has exhibited a 10-ear sample of corn at the International Livestock Show in Chicago. Charles has given demonstrations and served on judging teams in both State and county, winning State champion individual. He has learned to feed his pigs a balanced ration, vaccinate them, and fit them for show, also how to feed balanced ration to the lambs which he blocked and trimmed for show. As a result of his club work he won trips to the State club tour 4 years and also has been delegate to the National Club Congress twice. He has been recreation and song leader of his club.

---

INDIANA

Mr. Charles T. Hosford, Noble County, enrolled in the beef-calf project in 1926 and later added corn and poultry club work. He has exhibited successfully in the county and State and also at the International Livestock Exposition. He has been active in the livestock judging contests at both State and county fairs and has won trips to the Purdue round-up, State fair, 4-H leaders' camp, and the National Club Congress. He has been assistant local leader, local leader, vice president, reporter, president, and critic on parliamentary law.

Miss Lillian A. Murphy, St. Joseph County, has completed 10 years' club work, including clothing, foods, baking, health, and leadership. She has directed 209 club members, assisted in organizing new clubs, and helped other junior leaders. She has been successful in exhibiting, judging, and demonstration work, giving individual and team demonstrations and winning numerous awards. In 1933 she represented Indiana in the National Achievement Contest and was awarded the President's trophy as national winner. Through her efforts recreational activities have been established in her community and county. She has attended club camp, State fairs, Purdue round-up, and the National Club Congress. In addition to holding all the offices in her club she has been song leader 4 years.

Mr. Thomas K. Parkison, Jasper County, has been a 4-H club member 8 years. He has had experience in the pig, lamb, corn, colt, poultry, and dairy projects. He has fed a ton litter of pigs, kept complete dairy records on four dairy cows and their calves, has a flock of 180 laying hens, and has established the foundation of a herd of purebred hogs and a flock of purebred sheep. Thomas has exhibited livestock at the State and county fair as well as at the International Livestock Exposition, where he won a scholarship. He also is winner of a scholarship provided by the board of trustees of Purdue University. He has been a member of the State judging team. He organized the first 4-H club in Gillam Township, is a member of the county 4-H achievement club, and was delegate to the State conference in 1934. He has held most of the offices in his club.

Miss Mary E. Wien, Tippecanoe County, has completed 28 projects during her 9 years' membership in the 4-H club. Room improvement, canning, turkeys, food preparation, leadership, and clothing are among her enterprises. She has had 24 exhibits at the State fair, and has entered the judging contests each year in district, county, and State, winning many awards. In 1934 she represented her State in the National Achievement Contest and placed first, winning the President's trophy. She has given demonstrations and public talks, attended State fair, Purdue round-up, National Club Congress, directed judging activities, and been active in assisting with club exhibits. She has held all the offices in her club and has been song leader.

IOWA

Mr. Leroy Epling, Woodbury County, lives on a 320-acre farm and ever since he joined a 4-H club 6 years ago has specialized in baby beef. He has shown 10 baby beeves at the county fair and 9 at the interstate baby beef show in Sioux City, winning several "firsts" and reserve championship. He participated in the livestock judging contest at the county fair 5 years and at the State fair 2 years. In 1933, he won a gold medal in the national meat-animal record contest. The same year he also won a health championship and a trip to the State fair. He has been awarded trips to the State short course and represented his State in 1933 at the National Club Congress. He has been secretary, vice president, and president of his club.

Mr. Lester L. Ihms, Scott County, chose baby beef, pigs, corn, poultry, and pheasants for his 4-H projects. He has exhibited calves successfully at the State fair during the last 5 years and at the International Livestock Show in Chicago during the last 3 years. He has participated in numerous grain- and livestock-judging contests in district, county, and State, winning a long list of "firsts." He has been an entrant in the county health contest. He has won five trips to the State fair, four trips to the short course, and three trips to the National Club Congress. He keeps records of his father's 200-acre farm. He has been assistant leader, local leader, secretary, vice president, and president of his club.

Miss Myrtle Sersland, Winneshiek County, has completed 9 years of club work in canning, baking, home furnishing, and clothing. She has exhibited her club work, was a member of the demonstration team in 1931 which gave a demonstration in "Do you know what you buy?" and "Make the best better", and in 1935 "Refinishing hardwood." Myrtle was the State 4-H health champion in 1935. She has been awarded trips to the Waterloo Cattle Congress, State fair, the Ames Convention, and the National Club Congress. She has given talks on 4-H club work and has held all the offices in her club.

Miss Carol Vinton, Hardin County, selected canning, baking, home furnishing, and clothing as her club enterprises 11 years ago. She has exhibited her clothing work and canned food successfully at the State fairs. She has been active in demonstration and judging work and has been awarded trips to the State Convention at Ames, four trips to the State fair, and has represented her State at the National Club Congress. Carol has won the county health championship. She has been interested in community programs and given talks on 4-H club work. She has been treasurer, vice president, historian, and reporter of her club.

KANSAS

Mr. Ronald Beery, Cowley County, selected sheep, swine, dairying, soybean, baby beef, and leadership as his projects 8 years ago. At the State fairs he has exhibited heifers, pigs, and fat lambs with a long list of "firsts" to his credit. He has been a member of the judging and demonstration teams for several years at the State and county fairs and round-up. He has been awarded trips to the National Dairy Show at St. Louis, and represented his State at the National Club Congress in 1933. Ronald is a member of the County 4-H Council. He has occupied the offices of reporter, vice president, and president of his club.

Miss Betty Brown, Lyon County, has had 10 years' experience in canning, baking, corn, poultry, swine, clothing, baby beef, and leadership. She has exhibited canning, baking, clothing, and baby beef at the State fairs, and been active in demonstrations and judging the last several years, winning many awards and trips. She has represented her State at the National Club Congress, been awarded trips to the American Royal Livestock Show twice, Hutchinson fair, Wichita fair, and American Youth Foundation camp and won the Moses Leadership trophy last year. She is president of the County Council, and has been leader, vice president, president, and song leader of her club.

Miss Grace Drew, Barton County, during her 10-year membership in a 4-H club has completed projects in canning, leadership, clothing, geese, baking, and gardening. She has exhibited clothing 5 years, and has shown nine exhibits in canning at the State fair, with many awards to her credit. She was reserve champion in the dress-style revue in 1932, and best groomed girl in 1933, 1934, and 1935. She was a member of the judging and demonstration teams for several years. She has represented her State at the National Club Congress twice. Grace is a member of the Rural Youth Association.

Mr. William Shaw, Douglas County, selected poultry, leadership, swine, colt, and dairying 8 years ago, when he joined a 4-H club. He has exhibited successfully and has a list of 47 "firsts" to his credit. He has been an active member of the judging and demonstration teams in his county, has raised 1,642 chicks and kept records of 723 laying hens. William represented his State at the National Club Congress in 1933 and 1935, and has attended the State fairs, round-up, and the American Youth Foundation camp. He has been secretary, treasurer, junior leader, and president of his club. He also has been president of the County Council.

KENTUCKY

Mr. Ford Hervey, Garrard County, has specialized in the baby-beef project during the past 8 years and also has raised tobacco. He has exhibited 13 baby beeves in county and State shows, most of them being in the State champion carlot. In 1932 he showed the grand-champion calf of the show, winning a trip to the National Club Congress. He has won second in the county exhibit of tobacco, been active in judging and demonstration contests, attended junior week twice, been assistant local leader of his club, and held the office of president 7 years.

Miss Sarah Jean Potter, Warren County, joined a 4-H club 6 years ago choosing clothing, foods, canning, room improvement, swine, and poultry. She has competed successfully at county and State fairs, has been awarded three trips to junior week and a trip to the National Club Congress. Sarah was awarded first prize on a room-improvement unit which was sent to the National 4-H Club Congress. She has given demonstrations in her community in all her projects. She entered the county style dress revue three times, placing second each year. Sarah has been secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president of her club.

Miss Minnie Ruth Pyle, Christian County, selected clothing, canning, foods, room improvement, and leadership as her club enterprises 9 years ago. She has exhibited her club work and been active in judging and demonstration work winning many awards and trips. She has attended the National 4-H Club Congress; has been secretary, vice president, and president of her club, leader of the clothing-, foods-, and canning-project groups, and in charge of a canning exhibit sent to the State fair. She has been a member of two county champion demonstration teams, placed second in the county dress style revue twice, and assisted with the homemakers' club market.

Mr. Gifford Varney, Pike County, has had 7 years' experience in potato, melon, tomato, poultry, corn, and dairying work. He has exhibited his products successfully in both State and county, and has been active in judging work, winning first place in the State in the poultry-judging contest. He has given demonstrations in spraying potatoes for blight, flea beetle and potato bugs, and also in cutting and treating seed potatoes. He represented his club at the National Club Congress. The income from his projects has been used to pay his way through high school and for the purchase of band instruments for his sister and himself, as they are members of the school band. He has been vice president and president of his club, president of the 4-H club council, and president of the State association of 4-H clubs.

LOUISIANA

Mr. Rouceive Baham, Rapides Parish, has had 5 years' experience in cotton-, corn-, potato-, peanut-, cane-, calf-, and pig-club work. He has exhibited his projects successfully at parish and State fairs, has been a member of the county and State demonstration team for several years, giving demonstrations in "The proper cutting and curing of pork on the farm" and "Treating seed potatoes for diseases", and winning first place. He was highest scoring individual in judging crops at the short course last year. In 1934 Rouceive started to help his mother build a dairy herd which now is a very fine one. During the last 2 years he has assisted club members to select exhibits. He has been secretary, vice president, president, and local leader.

Miss Nora Eskridge, East Baton Rouge Parish, selected gardening, calf, clothing, health, and food preparation as her club projects in 1929. She has given public demonstrations in her various club enterprises, and has exhibited successfully at the State and county fairs winning many "firsts." Nora won first place in the health contest at State short course in 1934. She makes all her own clothes and helps younger members with their sewing. She has 15 acres in pecan trees and 1 acre in peach, fig, and pear trees. Her herd has increased by 50 head of dairy cattle and 75 head of beef cattle. With her returns she has bought a truck for the retail route, a separator, coolers, and an ice box. With the proceeds from the sale of beef cattle she built a modern dairy last year. During the worst years of the depression the cash which was realized through the dairy helped materially. She is depending on the dairy to help complete her education. She has attended camp each year, and has represented her State at the National Club Congress. She has filled practically all the offices in her club.

Mr. Jack Harelson, East Baton Rouge Parish, started 4-H club work 8 years ago, and has specialized in pig and corn club work. He has exhibited successfully at State fairs, the last several years winning many "firsts" and two championships for hogs. He has been active in judging crops and livestock. He won first place in the meat-identification contest in 1934. Last year he was awarded a gold medal for parish winner of the meat-animal contest and a gold watch for outstanding work in the State. Money received from the sale of corn and pigs was invested in horses, cows, and purebred hogs. In addition to his hogs he now has four horses, two cows, two heifers, and one calf. Jack has increased his projects, as he plans to finance his college expenses with the money earned in 4-H club work. He has won trips to the New Orleans Livestock Show, one to Memphis, and one to the National Club Congress. He has been president of his club 4 years, and a member of the parish and State executive committee.

LOUISIANA (contd.)

Miss Vivian M. Wintz, Iberville Parish, has carried home improvement, canning, clothing, food preparation, health, and baking, since joining the 4-H club in 1930. In competition at local and State fairs she has a number of "wins" to her credit. She has been active in judging bread and canning, has been a member of the demonstration team which gave demonstrations in "The process of making mayonnaise", and also "Care of the sick." In the health contest she has been first in the parish and third in the State. She has attended club camp, State short course, and the National Club Congress. Vivian is a member of the parish executive committee, and has been secretary, treasurer, and president of her club.

---

MAINE

Mr. James D. McArthur, Aroostock County, has had 5 years' experience in garden-, pig-, and potato-club work. He has been a member of the demonstration team and also has been active in local judging contests as well as in community organizations. A few of the club members have had transportation to meetings for themselves, but some members have walked 3 miles across woods to attend and many have walked 5 miles - an experience not unknown to James. His club makes two trips each year, traveling 80 miles to attend county contest and 4-H field day and always enters contestants in the events - Charles has won several awards. He has attended State camp and has filled the offices of president, secretary, reporter, treasurer, chairman of program-of-work committee, and this year is local leader of his club.

Miss Doris O. Nightingale, Somerset County, has been actively engaged in canning and clothing club work in the 3 years in which she has been a 4-H club member. She has represented her club in exhibiting, judging, and demonstrating, winning many awards. In the 4-H department at the fair Doris made a special exhibit of 50 jars of canned food, receiving first honors; she also received second in clothing. With her brothers and sisters she gave a demonstration in handling poultry in the form of a short play. Her canning was sent to the State seed show, where she received third place. Doris has won the medal presented by the D. A. R. for the highest ranking girl in home economics. She has attended State camp and filled the office of president for 3 years.

Miss Donna A. Ramsdell, Washington County, has had 8 years' experience in clothing-club work, including canning in her third year. During the last 2 years she has been doing nearly all the family canning. She has given demonstrations in canning and sewing and has been active in judging contests winning first place in sewing. Each year of the past 7 her club has won the banner. Donna has attended State camp every year and she won a trip to Camp Vail last year. She has been secretary of her club and cheer leader 4 years.

Mr. George H. Stanford, Cumberland County, has specialized in the potato project during the past 4 years. He has participated in the county potato-judging contests and given demonstrations in grading potatoes. He was a delegate to the State camp in Orono in 1935, and is leader of a new club this year. He has served as secretary, assistant local leader, and local leader.

MARYLAND

Miss Mary Hutchison, Talbot County, has had 5 years' experience in poultry, clothing, room improvement, and home management. She has made practical use of her knowledge of sewing, as she makes most of her own clothes as well as some for her mother and for others. She has exhibited her clothing-club work and has given demonstrations in foods and in posture. She is local leader of a girls' 4-H club of 13 members. She has been vice president and president of her club.

Mr. Merkle L. Ifert, Frederick County, has specialized in Holstein heifers throughout his 7 years' membership in the 4-H club. He has exhibited 12 head of Holstein heifers and won many first prizes. He has been a member of two judging teams which placed first. During the last 3 years he has been judging at the Maryland State fair. He has given demonstrations at club week and also at the State contest. He has been treasurer of the 4-H Council.

Mr. Douglas H. Lee, Baltimore County, has had 7 years' experience in dairying. In each of the last 5 years he has exhibited at fairs and won many "firsts." Last year he won the showmanship ribbon at the McDonogh fair. He has participated in the judging contests at the Timonium fair the last 4 years. He has been a member of the State cattle-judging team at St. Louis, Mo. Douglas has been secretary, vice president, and president of his club.

Miss Ailene E. Williams, Calvert County, has been a 4-H club member during the last 6 years. She enrolled in clothing, baking, canning, and flower garden work. Ailene has exhibited an evening dress in the dress-style revue, won first prize for biscuits at the State 4-H club week, and given demonstrations in making a variety of biscuits. She has attended county club camp and been president of the County Council.

---

MASSACHUSETTS

Miss Emily Climo, Middlesex County, chose baking and cooking as her first club project which she carried 4 years during which time she learned, to her mother's satisfaction, to prepare meals for her family of 12 members. Emily interested her mother in club work to the extent that she became leader of the group the second year, and the fourth year her mother was leading two cooking clubs. During her fifth year Emily organized and led a girls' homecraft club which finished as a banner club. She also organized three other clubs in the same year. She entered the dress-style revue, winning a blue ribbon for a linen sport dress. In 1935 Emily organized six 4-H girls' clubs at two grammar schools, and this year she has organized a boys' handicraft club. All these clubs are doing good work. She has won many awards on her exhibits of baking, sewing, and homecraft work. Due to her 4-H training she was able to take care of two small children during her entire high-school course. She gave a talk on club work before the parent-teachers association, has attended 4-H club camp, is president of the 4-H Service Club, a member of the 4-H Alumni Club, and has been song and game leader, local leader, vice president, and president of her club.

Mr. Donald E. Dickinson, Hampden County, started in club work in 1926 with a ewe lamb which he exhibited at the Eastern States Exposition and with which he won a prize. Later he joined both the pig and dairy clubs. He has exhibited successfully at the Eastern States Exposition in each of the last 7 years, and has also judged and exhibited at the county fairs and given demonstrations. Last year he sold his sheep. During the last 2 years Donald has been active in the poultry club. He has 85 laying hens and 100 chicks, and sells an average of 22 dozen eggs a week to his retail trade. He now has two milking cows, two heifers, and two bulls. In 1932 he had a  $\frac{1}{4}$ -acre garden and raised a variety of vegetables for home use. Last year he raised several varieties of squashes for a seed company. These proved to be quite successful. Donald has attended county camp each year and has been local leader, vice president, and president.

Miss Evelyn Smith, Plymouth County, specialized in clothing-club work 8 years ago, when she joined a 4-H club. She also included canning, cooking, and room improvement. Evelyn also has been active in the health campaign during the last 2 years. Her interest in room improvement spread from her own room to other parts of the house including her mother's kitchen. She feels that 4-H club work brings one closer to one's home and family. She has taken part in county and State exhibits and has judged and demonstrated, winning a number of "firsts." Evelyn has attended State camp several times, has been a delegate to Camp Vail, and has occupied the offices of local leader, secretary, and chairman of the program committee.

MASSACHUSETTS (contd.)

Mr. Kenneth Wade, Barnstable County, has specialized in poultry work during his 8-year membership in a 4-H club. Starting with 10 birds in a poorly arranged hen house, he put in a cement floor and improved the lighting and ventilating system. He increased his flock to 50 birds and continued his poultry project with that number during the next 3 years. The fourth year he bought and raised 500 chicks and built a new hen house with a capacity of 120 laying hens. He keeps a flock of 90 excellent laying hens. Kenneth believes that college would have been but a dream to him without the financial benefit received from his 4-H poultry enterprise. He has judged and exhibited poultry successfully at county fairs, the Eastern States Exposition, and the Boston Poultry Show, winning many awards. Last year he joined the handicraft club. He has won two trips to the 4-H camp. He has been president of his club.

---

MICHIGAN

Miss Antoinette Briggs, Iron County, joined a 4-H club 10 years ago, choosing canning, clothing, gardening, food preparation, poultry, and dairying. She has exhibited poultry, clothing, and eggs at State fairs, and also put a home-economics booth in at the Upper Peninsula State Fair, for which she won a trip. She has won honors in judging contests in canning, clothing, poultry culling, and egg judging. She was a member of the demonstration team which won county championship in poultry, canning, and clothing. She has competed successfully in the dress-style revue each year for 5 years. She now has a brooder house and a laying house. Her canning-, garden-, and clothing-club work has aided her family considerably during the last few years. She has attended club camp each year as well as many county and State fairs. Antoinette helped to organize the County 4-H Service Club. She has held all the offices in her club.

Mr. Sidney Howard, Emmet County, has specialized in poultry, sheep, and farm accounts during his 6 years of club work. He participated in poultry judging for several years at the district club camp, has been a member of the poultry and sheep demonstration teams which have won honors in the district, county, and State. He has won trips to the State fair and State short course, and has represented his State at the National Club Congress. He has been an entrant in the district and county health contests. He is vice president of his club and a member of the 4-H Club Council.

Miss Grace Moore, Branch County, started 4-H club work 9 years ago. Among her projects are canning, clothing, poultry, and dairying. She has exhibited successfully at 4-H club fairs, State fairs, and the Junior Livestock Show in Detroit, and has been a member of judging and demonstration teams winning honors and trips to State fair, State college club week, and the National Club Congress. For several years Grace has made all her own clothes. She is leader of a clothing club of younger girls. She has been secretary, vice president, president, and reporter for her club. She is a member of the Youth Conference, County Council, and the Service Club.

Mr. Donald M. Tuttle, Bay County, has specialized in rabbits and handicraft work during his eight years' membership in the 4-H club. He was a member of the Handicraft demonstration team which won the district prizes. He exhibited at the State fair in 1934 and 1935. He has entered the health contest at club week. He has won trips to the State club week 6 times and to the State fair twice. He has arranged the 4-H exhibits for County Day. Donald has been president of his club.

---

MINNESOTA

Miss Marjory Bennett, Pope County, undertook canning, clothing, meal planning, sheep, health, leadership, and home beautification when she joined the 4-H club 9 years ago. She has exhibited successfully at State fairs, been a member of judging and demonstration teams in each project which she has carried, and has won many awards. She has won a trip to the National Club Congress, several State fairs, and the junior livestock show. She has taken part in programs and helped to prepare booths, last year having full charge of the home-economics exhibit at the county fair. She has been secretary, reporter, vice president, president, librarian, and health leader of her club.

Mr. Arne O. Kivioja, Crow Wing County, enrolled in 4-H dairy-calf-, turkey-, chicken-, potato-, and corn-club work. He has exhibited successfully at the junior livestock show for several years, won the county showmanship three times, and participated in the county dairy-stock judging contests 4 years. It is necessary to have calves which are entered in club work tested for tuberculosis. Arne's father saw the value of this practice and wished to carry it out for the entire herd. As a result, they have had an accredited tuberculosis-free herd for the last 10 years. Arne has won trips to the State fair, boys' camp, junior livestock show, and the National Dairy Show in St. Louis. He has been president of his club 6 years, and also is a member of the rural-youth movement.

Mr. Wilbur J. Luther, Watonwan County, during his 7 years' membership in a 4-H club has completed projects in baby beef, sheep, pig, and leadership. Each year for 6 years he has exhibited baby beeves in the livestock show at St. Paul, and has given demonstrations in "How to throw a calf", "How to fit a calf for the show ring", and "How to show a calf in the show ring." Wilbur has been a member of the livestock judging team at the State and county fairs, has won three showmanship contests at the county fair, and awards and trips to short course and State fairs. He has been in partnership with his father the last several years in feeding baby-beef calves. He now owns two cows and five beef calves. He has held the offices of reporter, vice president, and president of his club, and has been secretary of the County 4-H Council 2 years.

Miss Ardes Shulstad, Clay County, began club work 8 years ago, when she enrolled in canning, room improvement, leadership, health, clothing, turkeys, baking, and dairying. She has exhibited her club projects successfully at State fairs and junior livestock shows during the last 4 years, and was State champion in the dress-style revue in 1934. She has won many trips to State fairs, club week, club camp, and a trip to the National Club Congress. She has been a member of the clothing judging teams and has given demonstrations in "Setting in set-in sleeves." She has occupied practically all the offices in her club.

MISSISSIPPI

Miss Doris Allen, Yazoo County, carried home improvement, foods, garden, and clothing as her club enterprises. She has exhibited her work successfully and has been a member of the judging and demonstration teams, winning three trips to the State Club Congress and one trip to the National Club Congress. Doris has prepared 500 balanced and palatable meals for her family. She has been especially interested in home improvement which she has carried each year, improving her room, her mother's room, the living and dining rooms, and the porch. She makes all her own clothes. She has been active in the work of the Junior College 4-H Club, local leader, president, and chairman of the program committee.

Mr. J. G. Henry, Pontotoc County, first undertook baby beef, and sow and litter, later adding cotton, corn, and dairy calf to his project. He has exhibited successfully, and has been a member of the cotton and livestock judging teams. Through his club work there now are registered hogs and Guernsey cows on his home farm. He is leader of a club of 54 members. He has given talks on 4-H club work, attended county camp each year and all club meetings, and has helped to organize a new club.

Miss Augusta McDonald, Yalobusha County, is in her seventh year of club work, having specialized in garden, canning, poultry, home improvement, and clothing. She was a member of the demonstration team which demonstrated "A Model Club Meeting", winning first place. She has participated in judging vegetables, foods, garden, canning, and clothing. She entered the dress-style revue in community, county, and State from 1932 to 1934, and won the leadership contest in the State in 1934. She represented her State at the National Club Congress. Because of her interest in home-improvement work she has improved the whole house with the cooperation and assistance of her father and brother, making it more comfortable and attractive - and the entire family has enjoyed it. She attended the State Club Congress in 1933 and in 1935.

Mr. Cecil Parke, Noxubee County, began his club work in 1929 with one purebred pig, later adding corn and cotton. He has shown his hogs at the county fair each year and has never failed to win first prize. Cecil was instrumental in bringing about the adoption of improved practices on his home farm, has interested his neighbors in growing purebred hogs, and during the past 4 years has sold 30 purebred hogs in 14 various communities, 1 in Kentucky, and 1 in South America. He is a member of the livestock judging team, and has won first in county, State, and tri-State fairs. With profits from his work Cecil has bought his own clothing, made some loans to his father, and now is paying part of his expenses at college. He has given talks on club work, attended club camp, and county tours, won a trip to the State fair, tri-State fair, and the National Club Congress. He represented his club in leadership at State Club Congress in 1935. He has filled all the offices of his club, and has been president of the county 4-H executive committee for 3 years.

MISSOURI

C. L. Buoy, Jr., Howard County, selected baby beef, pigs, sheep, colts, farm management, and dairying when he joined his 4-H club 5 years ago. Each year he participated in the State and national dairy-judging contests. At the State round-up he won high individual in judging all breeds. He exhibited calves at the St. Louis producers' calf-club show in 1932. In his farm-management work he kept a record of his father's farm for a year; his record book won the prize in the county and was entered in the State contest. Later he organized a farm-management club among the boys in his community. He entered the health contest in 1933 and 1934, winning first place in 1934. He has attended the American Royal Livestock Show twice. He has been president of his club each year. He is a member of the Missouri University 4-H Club.

Miss Betty Heffernan, Pettis County, has had 6 years' experience in canning-, clothing-, foods-, and health-club work. She has been a member of the clothing and canning judging teams, winning first in the county on clothing and second on canning. Through her clothing-club work she has learned to cut, fit, and make all articles in her wardrobe. Betty has learned to plan the family budget and to plan and plant the garden to meet the budget. Notwithstanding two dry years, she canned 417 quarts of fruits and vegetables and stored 16 bushels of vegetables. Last year she was declared the outstanding 4-H canning-club girl of the State and awarded a trip to the National Club Congress as a reward. She has exhibited her canning at both State and national events. She has been treasurer, reporter, vice president, president, and song leader of her club.

Mr. J. Alton Riffle, Cass County, specialized in baby beef during the last 7 years. He has exhibited at the local and county fairs as well as at the American Royal Livestock Show winning many honors. He has raised three grand champions, won a medal in the county meat-animal-production contest, a blue ribbon in the grooming contest at the State round-up, and many trips. At the National Club Congress last year he won the title of Missouri's healthiest boy. He has been a member of the judging and demonstration teams of his club. He won several trips to the State round-up and also to the American Royal 4-H Conference. Alton is leader of a poultry club of 30 members.

Miss Mary Ida Sullivan, Jackson County, has carried canning, clothing, and baking during her 6 years of club work. She has exhibited her work 4 years at the State fairs, and some of her canning has been exhibited at the National Club Congress. She has been a member of the clothing and canning judging teams and has given demonstrations in clothing-club work. In the dress-style revue of 1934 she won first place in the tailored-wool division. She has held all the offices of her club and also has been song leader.

NEBRASKA

Miss Cora Mae Briggs, Seward County, selected canning, swine, baby beef, clothing, room improvement, cooking, health, and journalism as her club projects 10 years ago. She has made 65 State, 15 interstate, and 18 national exhibits, winning a long list of "firsts." She has been awarded many honors and trips for her judging in county, State, and national events, and has been a member of many demonstration teams. Last year she prepared 500 meals and baked 140 loaves of bread. At the Ak-Sar-Ben and the State fair in 1935 she was high winner. She attended short course a number of times and also represented her State at the National Club Congress in 1932. During the last 2 years she has been leader of a club which she organized. Cora has filled the club offices of secretary, reporter, vice president, and president.

Mr. Rex Brown, Fillmore County, has carried gardening, corn, and dairying during his 8 years' membership in the 4-H club. He has exhibited Holstein calves, heifers, and also corn at the State fair each year during the last 4 years, winning many honors. He has been a member of the demonstration and judging teams and won two firsts in showmanship. He has won a trip to the American Royal Livestock Show and represented his State at the National Club Congress in 1933. Rex has filled the club offices of secretary, reporter, vice president, and president.

Mr. Avery Jaspersen, Washington County, has been interested in dairying, corn, swine, baby beef, and sheep since 1926. He has been successful in exhibiting corn, swine, and dairy cattle at the State fairs and swine at the Ak-Sar-Ben. He has won showmanship on dairy cattle and swine, has been a member of the judging team, and has attended State short course. Avery has filled all the offices in his club.

Miss Mollie Svoboda, Saunders County, has had 6 years' experience in cooking-, health-, and clothing-club work. Among her exhibits at the State fairs were clothing, bread, and news reporter poster. She also exhibited a complete costume at the National Club Congress, where she was representing her State. She has won five firsts at the style-show revue and been a member of the judging and demonstration teams for the last 4 years. Mollie has been secretary, reporter, vice president, president, and song leader of her club.

---

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Mr. John Perkins, Rockingham County, started his club work in 1930 with two sheep which his father had given him. He also was interested in forestry and in leadership. The following year he planted a garden. One of his lambs won first prize at both the Eastern States Exposition and the Rochester fair that year. He continued with his garden and also planted 350 white-pine trees. Unfortunately, dogs killed some of his best sheep that fall and he decided to try poultry work. He had 15 pullets to begin his project. He raised 80 chicks and increased his flock of laying hens to 30. In 1934 he started 300 chicks, bought two new brooder houses and stoves. He wintered 150 hens and started 800 baby chicks. He has a special prize of 25 hens which he won as a result of egg exhibitions at Concord, N. H., and Boston, Mass. He markets eggs through the Derry Egg Auction. He keeps records of his poultry business. Through his poultry and garden work he has earned all his clothes and spending money during the last 2 years. He has attended club camp, Eastern States Exposition, was a delegate to the Youth Institute in 1935, and has been president of the garden club.

Mr. David M. Perry, Cheshire County, began club work in 1926 when he enrolled in the wood-collection project. The following year he started poultry work which he has carried up to the present time. He has exhibited eggs at the State Egg and Baby Chick Show 3 successive years. David keeps records of his poultry project. In 1929 and 1930 he was junior county champion in poultry and in 1933 he won first place in the county poultry contest. Through his forestry-club work he became interested in a wood-lot improvement project. Since 1934 David has been active in leadership work, last year being leader of a forestry group. He was awarded a scholarship to the American Youth Foundation Camp. Last year he was director of the State 4-H club camp. He is president of the youth-extension work this year.

Miss Louise Pulsifer, Grafton County, started her 4-H club work in 1929 by selecting canning, clothing, and foods, all of which she carried 4 years and then added room improvement and leadership. She has exhibited canning- and clothing-club work successfully at both State and county events, being county canning champion for the last 2 years, and winning superior award at Camp Vail in judging canned foods. She has been a member of the judging team 4 years, has been active in 4-H health work and also in leadership. She has attended State camp each year during the last 6 years. She has held practically all the offices in her club.

Miss May Whitcher, Belknap County, has had 8 years' experience in canning, clothing, foods, and junior leadership. She has made practical use of her knowledge of sewing as she makes all her own clothes, helps with the sewing for her younger sisters and frequently makes clothes for other people for which she is paid. She entered the dress-style revue, winning first in the county and third in the State. She stood high each year in judging clothing and canning. May does all the family canning, usually 250 quarts a year. Last fall she took over leadership of a club. She won trips to club camp and Camp Vail, has been secretary, treasurer, and vice president of her club.

NEW HAMPSHIRE (contd.)

---

NEW JERSEY

Miss Katherine M. Graeff, Camden County, has been interested in cooking- and clothing-club work since 1929. She has demonstrated rush-seat weaving and other handicraft work at the fair. She has won first place in the annual fashion show at school and the annual achievement-day exhibition and county fair. When she finished high school in 1934 she became leader of a 4-H club. In 1935 she took care of the home - had complete charge of the planning and carrying out of the household duties - and also took care of two younger brothers and a sister. She has attended the Youth Conference at Rutgers, has been cabin leader at the State 4-H camp, and organized a clothing club of 12 girls last fall. Katherine has been assistant local leader, local leader, secretary, and president of her club.

Mr. Clayton Kinney, Hunterdon County, purchased a purebred Guernsey heifer and kept her record. Through actually doing the work he learned the value of records which show the cost of growing an animal. He has exhibited animals at county and State fairs since entering club work 5 years ago, winning a number of prizes. He has been herdsman for his county and has had charge of the cattle tents at the fair. He has been a member of the county judging team for the past 3 years and has won individual honors in judging contests. Clayton has been a member of the county 4-H dairy council 3 years. Last year he took dairy husbandry in the short course at State college. He has filled practically all the offices in his club.

Mr. Martin Smith, Sussex County, bought a grade Holstein heifer which is now 8 years old and still producing profitably. He has been a member of the county dairy judging team 2 years, and has exhibited successfully at State and county fairs, showing as many as five animals at one fair, and winning many awards. With the earnings from his club work he has continued to build up his dairy, and has invested in chickens, machinery, and a team of horses to carry on the farm work. In addition to the 8 head of purebreds which he owns, he has a one-half interest in the 26 cows on the farm, these he bought largely with the money he earned in 4-H club work. He is president of the 4-H county council and has held every office in his club.

Miss Margaret Tindall, Mercer County, is in her seventh year of club work, having specialized in dairying. Her first heifer, a purebred Holstein, proved to be outstanding in the show ring. She won not only several blue ribbons and cash awards, but two silver cups for the best fitted animal at two different shows. She has been a member of the senior judging team for 3 years. In 1930 she joined a flower club that gave demonstrations in chrysanthemum propagation, flower arrangement, and transplanting. She won a short course in flower gardening at the State college in 1934. Margaret has been chairman of the annual county 4-H chrysanthemum show, a member of the county 4-H advisory committee, and has held most of the offices in her club.

NEW MEXICO

Miss Quimby Harris, Lea County, has been interested in cooking, home improvement, and clothing-club work during the last 8 years. She has exhibited her club projects successfully, winning first place in the county; and has been a member of the judging and demonstration teams, taking part in many county and community contests and demonstrations. In Quimby's cooking project she has taken complete charge of the family cooking for 2 weeks at a time. Her home-improvement work has included refinishing floors and walls. She has attended State club camp, and has been local leader, game leader, and president of her club 6 years.

Mr. Dee Patten, Hidalgo County, has specialized in dairy-calf and corn work during his 8 years' membership in the 4-H club. He has exhibited successfully, winning many honors, ribbons, medals, and awards. Dee has had considerable experience in stock judging. He trained a stock-judging team which won the stock-judging contest at the Southwestern Livestock Show in Texas this year. He has been a member of the demonstration team. In 1933 he was high man for individual points earned in stock judging. Last year he went into partnership with his father, and together they operate their entire farm of 35 acres. He has been reelected general club leader for the entire county, is leader of his club this year, and has been secretary and president of his club.

---

NEW YORK

Mr. Joseph H. Dent, Delaware County, has had 11 years' experience in poultry, calf, pig, potato, and strawberry work and farm accounts. He was successful in exhibiting five head of Guernsey cattle at the county fair, winning first and also grand championship. He also has placed first in the stock-judging contest. When he exhibited potatoes at the New York State Vegetable Growers' Association, he won third. During his fifth year he planted 1,000 trees to protect his home from the west winds; the next year he again planted 1,000 trees. He joined the farm-account club, took inventory of the farm and kept a cash account. He has given demonstrations in "Fitting the dairy calf for the fair." He now owns eight registered Guernsey cows and a bull calf. Joseph has filled the offices of secretary, treasurer, local leader, and president of his club. He is a good public speaker.

Miss Rachel E. Lloyd, Otsego County, has been interested in garden, poultry, sewing, foods, and room improvement during the past 12 years. She has exhibited and won prizes at local, county, and State affairs, and was one of the delegates to the National Club Congress in 1933. She has shown leadership qualities in community affairs, and has spoken on club work at various gatherings. She has represented her club in many demonstrations and judging contests. Last year she organized a group of 23 girls taking foods and baking. This year she has two clubs. She has attended the State fair and State club congress. She has been secretary, reporter, and local leader.

Miss Marjorie Morehouse, Ulster County, has completed 7 years' club work including sewing, canning, room improvement, and meal planning. She has exhibited her baking successfully many times at the State fair, won prizes in judging sewing, canning, cooking, and room improvement, and given demonstrations in cooking and refinishing furniture. She has won trips to the State fair, State camp, and State club congress; is now leader of two clubs; and has done outstanding work in home economics. She has been assistant local leader, local leader, treasurer, president, and song leader of her club.

Mr. Ernest F. Newman, Chenango County, has specialized in poultry, garden, potato, and dairying, during the last 10 years. He has been successful in exhibiting cattle at the State fair and poultry at the Chicago Poultry Exposition and the New York Poultry Show, and has participated in judging and giving demonstrations at fairs several years. He was one of the State achievement winners in 1935, and did much to interest other boys and girls in club work. In 1930 he was awarded the Tioga Poultry Medal for the best pullet in the county. He represented his club at the National Club Congress in 1935; attended the State fair 5 years and the State club congress 2 years. He has been local leader and president of his club as well as president of the county council.

NORTH CAROLINA

Mr. Marvin Foyles, Lenoir County, has specialized in corn and tobacco since he joined the 4-H club 8 years ago. He also has been interested in black-walnut trees, and has planted 25 of them. He has been a member of the State seed-judging team for several years. He has attended club camp and been local leader, vice president, and president of his club.

Mr. Harold P. Garrison, Mecklenburg County, has been interested in corn, poultry, farm management, and wildlife conservation since enrolling in the 4-H club. To start his poultry project he, with the help of his father, sawed the lumber for two brooder houses and a laying house, 60 feet long by 20 feet deep, and then bought 600 baby chicks. Out of this number he lost only 7 until they reached frying size. In addition to his poultry work he is keeping a record flock-management demonstration with the poultry specialist. Harold has worked up a trade and has no difficulty in disposing of all the eggs. He is president of the 4-H Service Group, entered the county health contest in 1934, has attended club camp and the short course, and has filled the offices of leader and president of his club.

Miss Marjorie Veasey, Durham County, first undertook sewing as her 4-H club project and after 3 years added cooking, room improvement, gardening, health, and the homemaker's course. She has won first place in the county achievement-day demonstration and in the dress-style revue, and second place in the community health contest. In 1935 she represented her State at the National Club Congress.

Miss Helen Whitlock, Stanly County, has had 6 years' experience in foods, clothing, room improvement, health, and poultry work. At the county fair in 1935 she exhibited poultry, clothing, food preservation, and records, winning many firsts and second. She has been an entrant in the State dress-style revue. Last year she won the county health contest. In 1935 she was a member of the demonstration team at the State fair which won second place in the district. Helen has been president of a junior club for 3 years and local club leader 1 year.

---

NORTH DAKOTA

Mr. Fred Elliott, Pembina County, has been interested in sheep, lambs, and corn since he joined a 4-H club 9 years ago. He has been successful in exhibiting lambs at the State and county fairs during the last 5 years, and has won many honors and trips. He has given demonstrations in grading and marketing wool at State fairs. Fred has won four trips to the Achievement Institute, he also has represented his State at the National Club Congress. He has filled the club offices of reporter, vice president, and president.

Miss Edna Erikson, Ramsey County, started her 4-H club work by selecting the home-furnishings project, which she carried 2 years and then added clothing work. She has put on exhibits at County achievement day, and at State and county fairs, winning many honors and trips. She has been an entrant in the dress-style revue. Edna has been a member of two county demonstration teams. She has won five trips to the State 4-H Institute and also has represented her State at the National Club Congress. She has occupied the club offices of local leader, president, assistant secretary, secretary, and treasurer.

Miss Norma E. V. Stepanek, Williams County, has had 6 years' experience in foods and clothing-club work. She has been a member of the county demonstration team. Norma has been an entrant in the style revue, music memory contest, and six food contests. Among her awards have been three trips to the State 4-H Institute at Fargo and one trip to the National Club Congress. She has been secretary of the County Council of 4-H Clubs and has held all the offices in her club.

Mr. George E. Strum, Barnes County, has specialized in dairying, sheep, and lambs during his 10 years of club work. He has exhibited and won many "firsts" on both classes of work. He has been a member of the judging team in both State and national events. In 1935 he was outstanding boy club member and second in sheep showmanship. George has attended National Club Congress. He has filled the club offices of secretary, treasurer, vice president, and president.

---

OHIO

Mr. F. Irvine Elliott, Muskingum County, has specialized in dairying during the last 9 years. He has exhibited cows and calves successfully and has been awarded many honors and trips. He was a member of the dairy-judging team which judged at the State Dairy Show and the National Dairy Show; the team won first place in the State. Irvine won first individual in judging Holsteins at the National Dairy Show. He has attended the Ohio district camp, State Club Congress, and the National Dairy Show. He has been reporter, local leader, vice president, and president of his club.

Mr. Dean L. Garber, Richland County, selected poultry, pig, sheep, and forestry as his club projects 7 years ago. He has been a member of the county and State livestock judging team. In 1935 he entered the county health contest. Dean has attended district club camp. He has been club secretary and recreational leader.

Miss Wava Pauline Kurtz, Allen County, has specialized in nutrition and clothing-club work during her 9 years' club membership. She has exhibited her clothing-club work at the State fair, entered the health contest, and, each year for 4 years, entered the dress-style revue. She has been a member of three local demonstration teams and has given nine individual demonstrations at local club meetings. She has been club reporter, vice president, president, recreation leader, and committee chairman.

Miss Louise McClaine, Licking County, chose foods, canning, and clothing as her club projects when she joined the club 10 years ago. She has exhibited her work successfully at county, State, and national events, and has won many awards and trips. Each year from 1929 to 1934 she exhibited at the county fair. She has been a member of the judging and demonstration teams. At the State fair she won first place for her school dress. She also exhibited the school dress at the National Club Congress. Louise is a member of the University 4-H Club. She has won a trip to the State congress. She has filled the club offices of secretary, reporter, president, and recreational leader.

---

OKLAHOMA

Miss Lucille Dohogne, Ottawa County, has had 7 years' experience in canning-, poultry-, and clothing-club work. Lucille has made 32 exhibits at county and State fairs winning many honors and trips. She has been an active member of both the judging and demonstration teams, entered three health contests, won first in county showmanship and trips to the State fair, State round-up, district judging school, and one trip to Kansas City. She has been local leader, vice president, secretary, poultry captain, and game leader of her club.

Mr. English Marshall, Grady County.

Mr. Bob Morford, Alfalfa County.

Miss Carlene Weathers, Pottawatomie County, has been interested in dairying, canning, gardening, livestock, clothing, food preparation, and home improvement during the last 9 years. For some time Carlene has been exhibiting canning, clothing, crops, and home-improvement work at the State fairs. Each year for 6 years she has entered the county dress-style revue, winning five firsts and one second. Her demonstration team has given demonstrations in poultry, baking, clothing, canning, home improvements, and horticulture, and her judging team have been active in judging these same projects. She has won trips to district judging schools, State 4-H round-up, and State junior stock show, and has represented her State at the National Club Congress. Carlene has been local leader, club secretary, reporter, and song leader, and chairman of programs presented by 4-H clubs.

PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. Lester F. Dagle, Snyder County, joined a potato club in 1932 to try to learn more fully how to raise, select, and take care of seed potatoes. During the last 2 years he has added the corn project to his work. He was a member of the county potato-judging team which won second place at the Pennsylvania Farm Products Show. He also has been a member of the dairy-judging team during club week. At the club round-up in 1934 he won first place on potatoes. During the last three summers he has attended leadership school at State College. Through his club work he won a trip to the county camp and the club round-up. He has filled the offices of assistant local leader, and secretary-treasurer.

Miss Francis Marie Glass, Elk County, started her 4-H club work in 1928 in the clothing project. Three years later she added cooking, baking, meal planning, canning, and room improvement. Each summer during the last 5 years she has attended leadership school at the State college. She has been successful in her exhibits of clothing and baking at State and county events, where she has been awarded prizes and trips. She has conducted demonstrations in flower arrangement, school lunch, and patching. With the assistance of another girl she wrote the Century of Progress, a stunt sketch which the county group put on at State College, for which she received a prize. Frances makes most of her own clothes. During club week she has been in charge of group singing, and has filled the offices of secretary, vice president, and song and game leader of her club.

Miss Evelyn A. Judd, Northampton County, first undertook club work in 1930, choosing as her projects, clothing, potatoes, canning, room improvement, and corn. Last year she joined the meal-planning club for older girls. Evelyn does all her own sewing and helps with the family sewing. She was a member of the corn-judging team which took first place in the State. She has exhibited her clothing-club work, placing second at both the county and State farm-products show. She has attended leadership school during the State club week and has been secretary of the junior 4-H club council 2 years. Her father let the club use an old two-room house, which the members papered and fixed up. They gave programs to raise money to do this and also to repair a piano which was donated. Now they have a place in which to hold their meetings.

Mr. Ausmus S. Marburger, Butler County, has had 6 years' experience in the corn club. In 1933 he added strawberries, baby beef, and capons. He was active 4 years in judging general livestock at the county fair, has been a member of the livestock judging team at the State college during club week, and exhibited baby beef at the Pittsburgh Livestock Show in 1935. He attended 4-H Tri-County Camp, has been a member of the 4-H county council, and in his club held the office of treasurer, secretary, vice president, and president. He also has helped to organize a 4-H club.

[illegible]

RHODE ISLAND

Miss Bertha A. Dennis, Newport County, has been active in canning, foods, room improvement, and clothing since she became a 4-H club member. Bertha has exhibited her baking and canning at State camp, winning honors, and also has participated in judging and demonstrations contests. She has won a trip to Camp Edwards and one to Camp Vail. When she entered the health contest, she made a score of 96. She has been treasurer, president, and reporter for her club, and also a member of the County Council.

Miss Mildred E. Grierson, Providence County, has had 9 years' experience in room improvement, foods, and clothing-club work. She has exhibited her work in the county and State, and at the National Club Congress. She has been active in judging contests at county day, State camp, and the Eastern States Exposition. Mildred has found her clothing project quite a practical investment; she now plans and makes almost her entire wardrobe. She has won second place in the local health contest. She has attended the Eastern States Exposition, National Club Congress, and had eight trips to the State camp. She is a member of the 4-H All Stars. Mildred has been secretary of her club.

Mr. Joseph Howland, Kent County, has made practical use of his 6 years' of 4-H club work in poultry, handicraft, gardening, orchard, and dairying. His numerous exhibits of poultry at local and State poultry shows as well as at the New Hampshire Egg Show have been very successful. Joseph has won 500 ribbons as well as many trips; also the State championship medal for poultry. He has participated in poultry judging at State camp, Boston Poultry Show, and Camp Vail. Through his 4-H club work he obtained work as reporter on poultry magazines, which has been valuable training. He also established an egg route and opened an egg stand, where he has made valuable contacts. Joseph has filled all the offices in his club, is a member of the local garden club and poultry association, and president of the State 4-H Poultry Council.

Mr. Kenneth Pickett, Providence County, has been a club member for 7 years. He has carried handicraft, gardening, health, forestry, poultry, and dairying. He has made practical use of his handicraft work by remodeling furniture and constructing many useful articles for the farm and home such as feed hoppers for hens and pigs. This year he added an extension to the hen house. For each of the last 2 years he has planted over an acre of sweet corn which he sold at the roadside stand at his home. Kenneth finds his dairy project the most interesting of all. He has given demonstrations with the milk tester. He has been a member of the judging team each year, has entered the local health club contests and has attended State camp and Camp Vail. He has held practically all the offices in his club.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Miss Leitha Mae Ackerman, Williamsburg County, has been a club member for 7 years, having carried gardening, canning, clothing, health, foods, and room improvement. She has exhibited her room-improvement work, canned fruits and vegetables, winning awards and many trips. In addition to helping her mother with canning, she canned 487 quarts of food last year. She also made all her own clothes in 1935. She has been an entrant in the county health contest, won four trips to the State fair and two to State short course. Leitha has been secretary, local leader, vice president, and president of her club.

Mr. Otis L. Copeland, Jr., Bamberg County, has had 5 years' experience in raising cotton, corn, peanuts, poultry, and baby beef. He has exhibited calves at the State fairs, and has been a member of the livestock judging team. Otis has attended 4-H camp, and has been local leader, secretary, vice president, and president of his club. He is now president of the Community Club.

Miss Irene Hinson, Lancaster County, has learned to do many useful things since joining a 4-H club 8 years ago. Her chief interests have been canning, gardening, foods, clothing, room improvement, and leadership. She has exhibited 500 cans of food at the State fairs. In her market-gardening work she has produced and marketed 3,691 pounds of tomatoes, also has sold canned tomatoes, and has given public canning demonstrations at fairs. She has been an entrant in the county health contest and the dress-style revue. Trips to short course, State fair, county camp, and leaders' training conference have been won by Irene. She is now local leader of her club and has held all the offices in her club.

Mr. John Allen Watt, Sumter County, has specialized in pig- and corn-club work during the last 5 years. He has exhibited regularly at the county and State fairs. In 1934 he won a walking cultivator as grand achievement prize for the county, and a gold watch as State pig-club champion. Last year he was awarded the grand achievement trophy, and the showmanship award in the livestock contest. He has been a member of the judging and demonstration teams and attended camp. John assisted in organizing his club, and has been its secretary, president, and vice president.

---

SOUTH DAKOTA

Mr. Raphael Brandriet, Codington County, has a splendid 7-year record in 4-H dairy-club work. He also has been interested in the poultry and fat-lamb projects. He has exhibited his dairy animals, baby pork, baby beef, and poultry successfully, winning numerous high awards. He has been a member of both the State champion dairy-demonstration team and the live-stock team, representing his State in dairy judging at the National Dairy Show, and in livestock judging at the National Club Congress. Each year Raphael has entered the health contest. He now owns seven head of purebred Holsteins and 100 Buff Orpington chickens. He has served as junior leader 5 years, and has been secretary and president of his club. He is a member of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, and president of the county and State 4-H clubs.

Miss Evelyn M. Johnson, Day County, has been active during the last 8 years in home-furnishing and clothing-club work. She has made 30 exhibits on achievement day and at county and State fairs. She has represented her county on demonstration teams three different times, and on one occasion was the State representative in the national 4-H health contest. At the county dress-style revue she has won first place. Evelyn has been assistant local leader, local leader, secretary, and president of her club.

Mr. Clarence Nelson, Minnehaha County, has been a club member 8 years. His corn-club work covers the entire 8-year period, and in addition he has raised purebred gilts and has fed fat barrows and fat lambs. He has entered many county contests during the last 4 years and the county and State health contests the past 2 years. He has exhibited successfully at county and State fairs, winning prizes and trips. He has been active in the judging of livestock and crops. At present he is engaged in farming in partnership with his father. He has filled practically all the offices in his club.

Miss Evelyn Schuurmans, Bon Homme County, has included canning, dairy calf, clothing, and poultry in her club enterprises during the last 9 years. She has exhibited poultry and clothing in the State 3 years, won first place in the county dress-style revue, entered the State health contest, and given demonstrations in poultry- and clothing-club work. She has been active in judging poultry in both county and State contests, winning first in the county and second in the State. She has won three trips to the State fair and one to the National Club Congress, and has held all the offices in her club.

---

TENNESSEE

Miss Carolyn Davis, Davidson County, became interested 6 years ago in gardening, clothing, cooking, health, and dairying. Carolyn has exhibited her club work and won many prizes at the fair. She has won first on canning and also in the dress-style revue. She has attended club camp, and been vice president and president of her club.

Miss Gaithel Gary, Madison County, has had 9 years' experience in cooking, clothing, gardening, canning, and poultry. She has exhibited canned food at the Mid-South Fair and at the Century of Progress, Chicago. She has given demonstrations in table setting and room improvement. Among her awards were trips to the Mid-South Fair, State club camp, and two trips to the National Club Congress. Gaithel is much interested in community improvements. She has been club secretary, president, reporter, assistant leader, and recreational leader.

Mr. Joe Dodd Ramsey, Warren County, lives on a 200-acre farm and has carried corn, potatoes, dairying, farm accounts, swine, colt, and baby beef for the last 6 years. He has exhibited successfully at the county and State fairs, winning 3 grand champions, 3 champions, and 13 "firsts." He was head of the livestock department at the county fair in 1933. He was a member of the crop judging team for 3 years. He won a trip to the district camp in 1933. He has been local leader; club president, secretary, and community leader; and exhibit committeeman.

Mr. Donald Todd, Scott County, has carried forestry, Irish potatoes, poultry, peanuts, and farm accounts during his 8 years' membership in the 4-H club. With money earned through his club work he has purchased most of his schoolbooks and clothes. Donald lives on a 345-acre farm. He has exhibited potatoes and poultry at the fairs. He has been local leader and president of his club.

---

TEXAS

Miss Mary Buell, Harris County, began her 4-H club experiences 4 years ago, when she undertook gardening, room improvement, and landscaping work. She has been successful with her garden and canning work. In 1935 she took entire charge of the family garden, harvesting 8,792 pounds of vegetables, canning 773 quarts in addition to fresh vegetables for home use and for sale. She has exhibited her canning and room-improvement work winning many "firsts." In her landscaping work she planted shrubs and 48 cedar trees, made a cobblestone walk, and helped with the landscaping of the school yard. Mary also has helped many people with their family canning problems. She has been awarded trips to the State short course and to the Dallas fair. She has held the offices of secretary, reporter, and president of her club, and is treasurer of the county home demonstration council.

Mr. Urban Hopmann, Fort Bend County, has 5 years of record club work to his credit, consisting of cotton, corn, hegaria, cane, poultry, sheep, and baby beef calves. He has exhibited his livestock and crops successfully each year, having been awarded grand champion, many blue ribbons, and trips to the State short course, Dallas State Fair, and the National Club Congress. Urban and his father are now full-fledged partners. He was chairman of the 4-H club community-betterment program in 1933, 1934, and 1935. Some of the work consisted of beautifying the school grounds, building a community park, and establishing a community canning center. The canning center is busy practically all the time. He has been secretary, and president of his club, and chairman of the finance committee of 4-H clubs.

Mr. J. T. McDaniel, Swisher County, started 4-H club work with a registered Poland China sow and litter of eight pigs, and has continued this work throughout his 6 years' membership. He has exhibited his hogs each year, winning 12 "firsts", 4 of which were grand champion and 8 reserve champion. In 1932 he won the pork-production contest which covered the territory of the Panhandle, New Mexico, and Oklahoma, there being 28 competitors. He has built all his equipment such as concrete self-waterers, concrete wallow holes, self-feeders, farrowing houses, movable granary, trough space, and winter shelter. He won a trip to the farmers' short course at State college, where he was selected as one of the Gold-Star Boys of Texas. He also has been awarded a trip to the National Club Congress. Believing records to be very valuable, he has kept an accurate record of all receipts, leaving nothing to memory or guesswork.

Miss Laura Oehler, Kerr County, has had 3 years' experience in gardening, room improvement, clothing, cooking, and landscaping. She has planted 27 varieties of vegetables in her 3-acre garden,, had the cellar cemented and screened and 100 feet of shelving added on which 917 quarts of canned foods, - leafy vegetables, starchy vegetables, and others - well organized and labeled, have been stored. She has canned 175 quarts of meat for other people. Laura has exhibited all types of her work. She has won first in the district, county, and State in the girls' bedroom contest. She makes all her own clothes,, has taught a number of women to make hooked rugs, scour wool, refinish floors, and can. She has been awarded trips to the State short course and the Dallas fair and has been chairman of the recreation and the finance committees.

TEXAS (contd.)

---

VERMONT

Mr. Robert Dunklee, Jr., Windham County, has had 7 years' experience in 4-H club work, his major interest being market gardening which he has carried out successfully in cooperation with his brothers. He has raised a large variety of vegetables for retail trade and the surplus has been canned for winter. He specializes in a very fine variety of popcorn, raising about  $1\frac{1}{2}$  tons each year for retail and wholesale trade. In addition to his gardening he has, each year, carried from two to four of the following projects: Forestry, handicraft, alfalfa, fruit, and dairying. He has been garden champion in the county 7 years and in the State 5 years. He has competed successfully in demonstration and judging contests, has attended State 4-H week twice, and was elected to the honorary society in 1935. For the last 3 years he has been leader of a garden club of younger boys, and has held all the offices in his club.

Miss Arlene Lamson, Orange County, has been enrolled in the 4-H foods project since 1931. Previously she was engaged in gardening, sewing, and dairy work. Last year she won first prize in both the county and State foods-record contests. In the muffin-baking contest of 1933 she won first place in the county and third in the State. In 1933, 1934, and 1935 she was the county foods-project champion. While attending State week she was elected to membership in the State honorary society. This year she is local leader of a younger girls' foods club. She has attended county and State camp, and has filled all the offices of her club. This year she is song leader of her club.

Mr. James Rikert, Windsor County, was given a registered Jersey calf by his father to start 4-H club work and during the last 7 years has been actively engaged in raising dairy cattle, winning a number of prizes in connection with his work. He also has raised colts. In 1930, 1931, and 1932 he won first place in the State dairy-cattle judging contest, and in 1935 was county champion showman. At the Eastern States Exposition in 1930 he took first place in judging dairy cattle of all major breeds and was second in dairy showmanship. He has attended 4-H club week, State camps, is a member of the State 4-H honorary society, and has been club leader 4 years. He has been secretary and treasurer of his club, as well as song leader.

Miss Helen Tasker, Windham County, started her 4-H club work in 1927 by selecting clothing, room improvement, and foods. She has won honors in her clothing work, being county champion in 1929, and winning the county clothing contest in 1931 and second place on her room improvement work. Helen makes her own clothes. She has attended county camp each summer during the last 7 years, the last 3 in the capacity of leader and music director. She has held all the club offices and has done junior leadership work.

VIRGINIA

Miss Charlotte Burgess, Chesterfield County, has covered, during her 8 years' experience as a club member, a wide range of projects including poultry, room improvement, clothing, canning, baking, and leadership. During the last 2 years she has supplied the family with fresh vegetables from her year-round garden. She has been a county winner in demonstration teams, judging contests, and the correct-dress contest. Charlotte has made practical application of her club work, and since her mother's death several years ago she has assumed all the home responsibilities. She makes all her own dresses and most of her sister's. Two years ago she organized a group of small boys and since has been directing their garden work. Because of her 4-H training she obtained work in the women's department at the Southside Virginia Fair. She has attended short courses, is secretary of the county Rural Youth Institute and a member of the Virginia All Star Chapter, and has filled the offices of local leader, secretary, president, reporter, and song leader.

Mr. Thomas Martin, Bedford County, has been in club work 10 years. He has carried a dairy project for 9 years and is interested in pigs, corn, and tomatoes. In competition at local and State fairs he has won many prizes and honors on his exhibits and work. In the 1932 grand-champion dairy exhibit he won a cash prize and a registered bull calf; in 1934 he was awarded a medal for being the best corn-club member in the county; and in 1935 he was State champion livestock member, winning a gold watch. Last year he took charge of the cannery which his father built on the farm. Through his club work the livestock on his father's farm has been changed from scrubs to purebred animals. He has won trips to the State short course, is a State All Star Chapter member, and has been vice president and president of his club.

Mr. Charles Wampler, Jr., Rockingham County, has had 10 years' experience as a member of a 4-H club, being interested in sheep, turkeys, and dairying. He has exhibited successfully at State and county fairs with a long list of "firsts" to his credit. He has been a member of the State poultry-judging and the State livestock- and dairy-judging teams. Charles entered the county health contest in 1934 and 1935, winning first place each year. He has been awarded trips to the State short course and has been vice president, president, and cheer leader of his club.

Miss Edna Wingfield, Roanoke County, selected room improvement, clothing, health, foods, and canning as her club projects in 1930. She has been a member of the county judging team for foods and home improvement. She has specialized in room improvement. Through her efforts her six-room home, including the porch, was improved. She has made home-made furniture for her own room, improved the floor by using stain made from tree bark and nut hulls, and painted the furniture. In the room-improvement contest she placed high with the best all-round record for 1935. She has been reporter, secretary, president of Junior League, and is now vice president of her club.

WASHINGTON

Miss Daisy Faler, Spokane County, has spent 8 years in 4-H club work, carrying meal planning and clothing. She has exhibited her work successfully, having a list of 39 "firsts" to her credit. Each year for 5 years she has given demonstrations in meal planning, and has been a member of the home-economics judging team, winning first place in the county. Daisy makes all her own clothes including fall suit and wool dress. She has been awarded trips to the State fair twice, the State club 3 years, and she also has represented her State at the National Club Congress. She has been local leader, vice president, and president of her club, and a member of the county 4-H council.

Miss Lela Sims, Whitman County, has been interested in canning, clothing, room improvement, garden, poultry, and meal planning during her 5 years' membership. She has exhibited her work successfully, has many ribbons to her credit, and has won high honors in judging and on demonstrations. She has given demonstrations in canning string beans in tin, in good grooming, and in costume selection. She entered the community health contest in 1933. Some of her canning was exhibited at the World's Fair in Chicago. Lela makes all her own clothes. She has represented her State at the Pacific International and the National Club Congress. She has held practically all the offices in her club, and also is the song leader.

Mr. William Stadelman, Clark County, has had 6 years' experience in poultry, garden, swine, and dairying. He has been successful in his exhibits at the county fairs and the Pacific International, winning honors and trips. Last year he raised 540 ducks. He has been a member of the judging team at the Pacific International. William was superintendent of livestock at the county fair 2 years at the same time serving as district vice president in the 4-H leaders' association. He attended the Pacific International for 3 years. He has been secretary, vice president, president, and local leader of his club.

Mr. Burton Waugh, Skagit County, has specialized in dairying during his 10 years' membership in the 4-H club. Each year he has exhibited Holsteins and won numerous prizes on his exhibits, demonstrations, and judging. In 1934 he was named the outstanding Holstein club member. He has attended State club camp twice, State fair 6 years, and has been a representative at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition and the National Club Congress. Burton now has a herd of six dairy cows. He has held practically all the offices of his club.

---

